STATE OF BRUNEI.

Legal Report.

Land Acquisition Enactment

(No.1 of 1949).

1. There was no procedure laid down by the Land Code or other legislation for the acquisition of land for public and other purposes, such as exists in Singapore and Malaya.
2. Such legislation is now necessary in Brunei, in view of the considerable acquisition of alienated land which will be necessary when the British Malayan Petroleum Company constructs its projected road from Seria to Brooketon (80 miles).
3. This Enactment was drafted by the British Resident and based on the Land Acquisition Enactment of Kedah (Enactment No.57). I made some alterations to his draft and included certain provisions from the Land Acquisition Ordinance of the Straits Settlements, as indicated in the comparative table enclosed herewith.
4. In sections 25, 26 and 27 references to the Court of Appeal were inadvertently overlooked. The references should be to the Judge of Appeal (Courts (Amendment) Enactment, 1948, Section 5). I think there can be no doubt that these references would be construed as being references to the Court of the Judge of Appeal. However, in due course, these sections will be amended.
